

Count each object slowly.

Only say one number for each object.

Careful Counting

Touch or point to each object as you count it.

The last number you say tells you how many objects there are altogether!

