

Key Events

Aim

- I can describe what happened during some key events from World War II and order events on a timeline.

Key Events

Success Criteria

- I can describe some of the key events of World War II.
- I can order events from World War II onto a timeline.
- I can explain why a specific World War II event was a key turning point in the war.

Key Events in World War II

World War II lasted for six years. It began on the 3rd September 1939 and ended on 2nd September 1945.

Over fifty million people were killed during World War II, which affected almost every country in the world.

The events of World War II have shaped the world we know today and will continue to impact on our future for a long time to come.

Key Events in World War II

Look at these World War II Events Cards.

What do you know about each event?

Why are these events particularly significant?

Can you put them into chronological order?

What other events from World War II do you know about?

Key Events in World War II

Hitler's Troops Invade Poland

German tanks in Poland

This event, which happened on the 1st September, 1939, sparked the beginning of World War II. Britain and France had promised to help Poland if Germany attacked them, so when Hitler refused to withdraw his troops, Britain and France declared war on Germany on 3rd September, 1939.

Key Events in World War II

The Battle of France

British Soldiers in France

This event began on the 10th May, 1940, after what seemed to many people, a slow start to the war on the Western Front. Germany's troops blazed through France and other West European countries using their blitzkrieg (lightning war) technique. Within six weeks, France, Belgium and the Netherlands were captured.

Key Events in World War II

The Battle of Britain

Spitfires in the Battle of Britain

This event began on the 10th July, 1940 when British ships in the English Channel were bombed by the German Luftwaffe. Mass bombing of airfields, harbours, radar stations and aircraft factories began in August 1940.

Key Events in World War II

The Blitz

Bomb damage during the Blitz

This event began on the 7th September, 1940 when the Luftwaffe turned their attention to the bombing of London and other cities, rather than the military targets they had previously focused on. London was bombed for fifty-seven consecutive nights and suffered extensive damage and the loss of thousands of civilian lives.

Key Events in World War II

The Evacuation at Dunkirk

Evacuated troops arrive in
Dover from Dunkirk

This event (code-named Operation Dynamo) began on the 26th May, 1940. After sustaining a massive defeat against the Nazis in France, the Allies were forced to retreat to the beaches of Dunkirk.

They were rescued by hundreds of small, wooden boats and then transferred to larger ships to sail across the channel to Dover.

Key Events in World War II

The German Invasion of Russia

German troops in Russia, June 1941

This event, which was named Operation Barbarossa, began on the 22nd June, 1941. At the beginning of the war, Hitler had signed a non-aggression pact with the Russian leader, Stalin. When Hitler broke this agreement and invaded Russia, Russia became one of the Allies and began to fight back against Germany.

Key Events in World War II

Japan bombs Pearl Harbour in Hawaii

Pearl Harbour

This event took place on the 7th December, 1941 when Japan bombed a US Naval base. Until this point, the US had opted to remain neutral in the war but this event prompted them to declare war on Japan the next day. On the 11th December, 1941, Germany and Italy declared war on the United States.

Key Events in World War II

The Dambusters Raid

Damage caused to the Möhne Dam

This event, called Operation Chastise, took place on the 16th and 17th May, 1943. Specially developed 'bouncing bombs' were dropped by Lancaster bomber planes on three German dams. This caused disruption to the manufacture of German war products and affected infrastructure in the area.

Key Events in World War II

D-Day: The Normandy Landings

British troops arriving in Normandy

The term D-Day refers to a specific date for a planned operation: in this case the Allied attack on the beaches of Normandy, which took place on the 6th June, 1944 and was code-named 'Operation Neptune'. The Normandy landings were the first stage of 'Operation Overlord', which aimed (and eventually succeeded) to drive the Germans out of France. This was fully achieved on the 30th August, 1944.

Key Events in World War II

The Battle of the Bulge

A British tank guards a bridge

This event, whose official name was The Ardennes Offensive, began on the 16th December, 1944. It was an attempt by Hitler to try and split up the Allies and stop them advancing on Germany. After some initial success, lack of fuel and retaliation by the Allied air force soon halted the offensive.

Key Events in World War II

VE Day

Prime Minister, Winston Churchill, waves to crowds in London in 1945

VE Day stands for 'Victory in Europe Day'. Following the suicide of Hitler on 30th April, 1945, Germany surrendered to the West on the 7th May, 1945. 8th May 1945, was the date the Allies celebrated the defeat of Nazi Germany (VE Day). VE Day is celebrated on the 8th May each year.

Key Events in World War II

The USA Drops Atomic Bombs on Japan

Smoke from the
Hiroshima Bomb

Although the war in Europe had come to an end, fighting continued in the Pacific. In an attempt to end the war as quickly as possible, the American president, Harry Truman, sanctioned the dropping of atomic bombs on two Japanese cities: Hiroshima on the 6th August, 1945 and Nagasaki on the 9th August, 1945. On the 14th August, 1945, Japan surrendered to the West. The moral debate as to whether the use of such a weapon was justified, still rages on today.

The official end of the war was on the 2nd September, 1945 when Japan formally surrendered.

Turning Points

TASK:- To research about one of these particular events from World War II and create a blog about it.

To what extent was this event a turning point in the war?

A turning point represents a moment in time when a decision made affects the outcome of a whole course of events. So, a turning point of the war is one where the overall direction and eventual outcome of the war was changed (perhaps potential victory swung a certain way).

You can choose to use Purple Mash for this or to do this on paper.

Debate

What was the key turning point in World War II?

When we have all completed we will be able to look at each others work and learn about each event in detail.

Consider:

Which events do you think were the most significant?

Is there a specific event that you consider to be the main turning point in the war?

Reflection

Think about each lesson you have completed:

- The Outbreak of War;
- Evacuation;
- The Blitz
- Rationing;
- The Role of Women;
- Key Events.

Try to remember key facts and details from each lesson.

Is there anything else you would still like to know?

