

Finding the 5 Ws in a News Story

| Story                                                    | Who | When | What | Where | Why |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----|------|------|-------|-----|
| Rolls Royce man 'lucky' not to face more serious charges |     |      |      |       |     |
| Major revamp for historic structure                      |     |      |      |       |     |
| Jumble sale coming to Shawford                           |     |      |      |       |     |
| Cheeky Girls visit discount store                        |     |      |      |       |     |
| Hampshire set to sign Jones                              |     |      |      |       |     |

Rolls Royce man 'lucky' not to face more serious charges

Friday 25th September 2009

AN ANDOVER man who drove his 26-year-old Rolls Royce into a busy supermarket has been jailed for 16 months and warned he was lucky not to be facing more serious charges with a longer sentence.

Robert Malcolm Caton, aged 50 of Cusden Drive, Andover, pleaded guilty to charges of dangerous driving and to failing to provide a specimen of blood or urine at an earlier hearing.

Major revamp for historic structure

Thursday 17th September 2009

CIVIC bosses have agreed a major £3.2m scheme to renovate an historic Winchester structure.

The city council's cabinet yesterday (Wednesday, September 16) approved funding to bring The Guildhall into line with other venues in the district.

Cheeky Girls visit discount store

The Cheeky Girls in Newmarket

POP duo The Cheeky Girls were surrounded by fans when they visited a discount store to promote their new range of cosmetics. The Romanian sisters, Gabriela and Monica Irimia, visited the recently-opened Newmarket branch of the QD chain as part of a promotional tour.

Hampshire set to sign Jones

Monday 28th September 2009

HAMPSHIRE hope to unveil fast bowler Simon Jones as their new signing in the next few days.

The 30-year-old, who has been plagued by a knee injury ever since helping England to their 2005 Ashes victory, is understood to have agreed a deal at the Rose Bowl.

Jumble sale coming to Shawford

A JUMBLE sale was held by the Reeves Compton Women's Institute on Saturday, October 3.

It was held in Shawford Parish Hall in Pearson Lane, and doors opened at 2pm.

There were several stalls at the event, including one selling home-made cakes.

Finding the 5 Ws in a News Story ANSWERS

| Story                                                           | Who                              | When                             | What                                     | Where                | Why                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| Rolls Royce man 'lucky' not to face more serious charges | Andover Man                      | 25 th September 2009  | Jailed for 16 months                     | Andover              | after driving his car into a supermarket              |
| Major revamp for historic structure                      | Civic bosses                     | September 16th                   | Agreed to renovate an historic structure | The Guildhall        | To bring it in line with other venues in the district |
| Jumble sale coming to Shawford                           | Reeves Compton Women's Institute | Saturday October 3 rd | Jumble Sale                              | Shawford Parish Hall |                                                       |
| Cheeky Girls visit discount store                        | Cheeky Girls                     |                                  | Visit discount store                     | Newmarket            | To promote new range of cosmetics                     |
| Hampshire set to sign Jones                              | Hampshire                        | The next few days                | Sign Simon Jones                         | The Rose Bowl        | Fast bowler                                           |